Travel Insurance

Comprehensive travel insurance is strongly recommended to protect your tour investment. Some levels of coverage, including for pre-existing medical conditions, may only be available for purchase within a limited time window. Please check with your insurer for details and requirements.

Surcharges: Dollar fluctuation

Local prices in Israel are based on the New Israeli Shekel (NIS). Any additional costs resulting from currency fluctuations that lower the Bank of Israel exchange rate below NIS 3.4 = USD $1 at time of arrival to Israel will be borne by tour participants.

Required Travel Documents

Every traveler must have a passport valid for at least six months after scheduled departure date from Israel. Travelers with passports expiring on or before this date may be denied entry to Israel. Israel issues tourist visas to U.S. citizens upon arrival. Entry requirements are subject to change. It is the sole responsibility of each traveler to meet all requirements for entry to Israel and for return to the United States. Parents/Guardians are responsible for satisfying entry requirements for any accompanying minors.
